

Memorial Day Prayer

to the tune of "Star Spangled Banner"* transcribed by E.S. Godfrey words by Daniel Heath

Con moto

1.) Help us hold up our light, Lamp stands filled with peace, hope re mov ing all of dark- ness, break ing
(2) all, harm to none, roar - ing pro tests and prayers clean_ wa- ter and food, e - du
(3) cul- tures and signs, co - lours and con - di - tions, _ there is light in all kinds, if we're shade ne - ver end - ing. Help us ne - ver to hold light for fame, _ for - tune not at - ten - tion or ca - tion and health - care. All the liv - ing in - clude pla - nets, trees, stars, and seas. Roar - ing mam mals and brave we can see it. We re - build, re - con - cile, we re - co - ver, re - pair! Mer - ging mer - cy and gain, not for harm or ill - wil - ling. Ev' - ry flame is a star shi ning bright near and far, The birds, fish and rep tiles, am - phi bians. We will grieve as we grow, e - ven hurt as we hope, but might, if we're brave we can be it. Twink - ling wide and be - neath, light so bright it can reach. Don't source of all life ig - ni ting hope, love, and peace! Oh, Spark ling and _ shim m'ring light light _ will heal, _ re - new and not kill. Not bro - ken, un - fin - ished, just hide _ your light, _ the _ world needs your glow! Beau - ty in dif - frence we were to the _ paths un - told. _ set - ting sights _ a - keep your _ gaze up high. _ Gleam - ing all _ a - all made _ to _ shine. _ Guid - ing hearts _ and _ bove, war - ming hearts _ with love! 2.) Light to climb! round, love and light e - ver found! 3.) All _ minds on the hills _ we (climb)